CASTRO IN DIRE STRAITS.

PERMANENT PEACE

Russian Government to Build No More War Ships For a Term of Years.

THIS MAY BE PROPOSED BY JAPAN

It is Denied That the Preliminary Negotiations For Peace Took Place in Paris.

However, That City May Have Been the Channel Through Which the Results Were Sent to St. Petersburg and Tokio.

Paris, March 27.—It was stated in diplomatic quarters here that among the conditions of peace which Japan might ask would be that Russia give a pledge to build no more warships for a term of years. A diplomatic official said that such a condition would be the most effective means of assuring Japan against Russia's carrying out her cherished project of naval rearmament for the renewal of hostilities under better conditions than those at present existing.

It is well known that Russia contemplates a huge plan of naval rehabilitation. Adm. Doubasoff, the head of the technical board of the admiralty; Capt. Glade, formerly chief tactical officer under Vice Adm. Rojestvensky, and other Russian naval authorities recently have taken the position that peace was desirable until a naval reconstruction could be completed.

Lasting Peace Desired.

This appears to have stimulated Japan's diplomats to consider means of avoiding a peace that would be equivalent to no more than a truce during which Russia would have time to forge an effective weapon, and therefore the intimation is now given that limitation of Russian naval armament may figure as a means of ensuring a prolonged peace in the Orient.

Concerning the recent preliminary approaches toward peace, it is now accepted in the highest diplomatic quarters that these preliminary negotiations did not occur here, although Paris may have been the channel through which the results were transmitted to St. Petersburg and Tokio. However, it is noticeable that there has not been the slightest reference in French newspapers to the peace movement having taken tangible form here or elsewhere, except in continued academic discussion of the peace propaganda and a few vague St. Petersburg dispatches showing that peace is in the air.

Field Marshal Oyama Interviewed.

Yinkow, March 22, via Tien-Tsin, March 27.—Field Marshal Marquis Oyama gave his first interview since coming into the field. He refused to discuss the probability of peace. "I am only a soldier," he said, "not a politician. The Japanese government will arrange terms of peace when the time comes. We were forced to fight this war in the interests of international peace and for the safety of our country. Personally, I have a high regard for the Russians. They are soldiers. The officers and men are brave and able and have fought well. During the war between China and Japan, I was the commander of the army which captured Port Arthur. With a division and a half of troops we took the city in five hours. The result this time shows the wonderful difference between the Russians and Chinese, with whom we had previous experience."

All Quiet at the Front.

St. Petersburg, March 27.—Gen. Linevitch, in a dispatch dated March 25, reports no change in the position of the armies. An imperial order relegated Gen. Gripenberg from the command of the second Manchurian army, but permits him to remain as aide-de-camp to the emperor.

Are in Favor of Peace.

Moscow, March 27.—With the exception of the Moscow Gazette practically all the newspapers of this city are for peace on condition that there be neither cession of territory nor payment of indemnity.

SANTO DOMINGO TROUBLE.

No Decision Reached As To The Collection of Customs Duties.

Washington, March 27.—State department officials definitely announced that as yet no final determination had been reached regarding the proposition of the representatives of the powers at Santo Domingo that the United States appoint one of its citizens to act as interior commission for the collection of customs, who shall allot 45 per cent, to the Dominican government and retain the balance in his custody pending the disposition of the treaty by the United States senate.

"Nothing is settled as yet," was the authoritative statement of one of the officials. "There has been a good deal of talk about it," he said, "but no decision has been reached as yet."

THE DEAD AMBASSADOR.

Honorary Pallbearers at the Funeral Appointed.

Washington, March 27.—The honorary pallbearers at the funeral next Tuesday of the late Senor Don Manuel Dr. Azpiroz, Mexican ambassador to the United States, were announced as follows: Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, Acting Secretary of State Adeo, Count Cassini, Russian ambassador; Baron Edmondo Mayor Des Planches, Italian ambassador; Mr. A. Grip, minister from Sweden and Norway; Senor Calvo, minister from Costa Rica; Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court; Senator Shelby M. Culom, Representative R. R. Hitt and John W. Foster, ex-secretary of state.

MEXICAN MONETARY SYSTEM.

President Diaz Has Issued a Decree For Its Reform.

Mexico City, March 27.—President Diaz has issued a decree for the reform of the monetary system authorized by congress in December last. The decree establishes the "peso," or silver dollar, at a value of 50 cents gold and the theoretical unit of the Mexican currency is defined to be the dollar or "peso" of 75 centigrammes of gold. An important feature of the decree is a provision for a reserve exchange fund which at first will consist of $10,000,000 or $15,000,000, and may be increased.

SECRETARY MORTON.

Found It Necessary To Curtail His Visits at Different Places.

Washington, March 27.—Secretary of the Navy Morton, who recently left in the Dolphin for Porto Rican and Cuban ports, has found it necessary to curtail his visits at the different places where stops are scheduled to be made in order that he might return to Washington in time to join the presidential party which will leave here on April 3 for a trip to Texas and Colorado.

PRESIDENT CASTRO.

He Manifests Hostility Against American and French Interests.

Paris, March 27.—An official dispatch from Caracas, Venezuela, says President Castro, who was absent from the capital during the recent supposed amelioration of the situation, has returned and has manifested strong hostility against American and French interests. His attitude, it is added, is particularly menacing against the French Cable Co.

His Appointment Held Up.

Washington, March 27.—On complaint of his divorced wife, the commission of Dr. Frederick McMaster, of New York, recently appointed consul to Zanzibar, has been held up by direction of President Roosevelt until an investigation has been made.

A Depot of Arms and Bombs.

Moscow, March 27.—An organized depot of arms and bombs was discovered recently on the premises of a rich merchant named Barasoff. Investigation disclosed a conspiracy to distribute arms. There have been over 800 arrests.

The Mexicans Pleased.

Mexico City, March 27.—The respect shown by the Washington authorities to the remains of the late Ambassador Azpiroz gives much satisfaction here.
